Rev. Lewis B. Griffin

Dedication

To one of our loved teachers who is patient and sincere, but capable in all he undertakes. To one who serves as a faithful pastor of his flock. To one whom we remember as living the truth not only in word but in deed. To one whose participation in birthday socials enlivened them no end. To one whose artistic ability has proven a blessing and an inspiration. To you, Rev. L. B. Griffin, we, the Senior Class of 1950, lovingly DEDICATE this edition of "The Rock".

School Life

As Christ mastered the winds and storms of Galilee
... as He conquered Self by submitting to the Father's will and draining the dregs of the bitter cup ...
... Even so, we as His disciples, are given power over the winds of adversity and storms of fear and doubt.
We, too, may resist the devil and he will flee from us.
We can bear temptation and yet not sin, we have a high priest, and the greatest victory of all ... we can conquer self which would cast us down. In all these things we are more conquerors through Him that loved us.

As Christ was . . .

So are we . . .

Men's Dormitory

This building is more than a shelter, it is a "home" where men live and learned to be lived with. It has become an important part of our school life. Within its walls future ministers and educators have studied, prayed, worked, and found rest. "Men's Dorm" means much to us and we will never forget it.

Administration Building and Ladies Dormitory

In addition to housing the lady students, it is the center of all activity. This is where the life of our school is found, for we study, eat, play and worship here. Never can we forget the great times of blessing "Up on the hill".

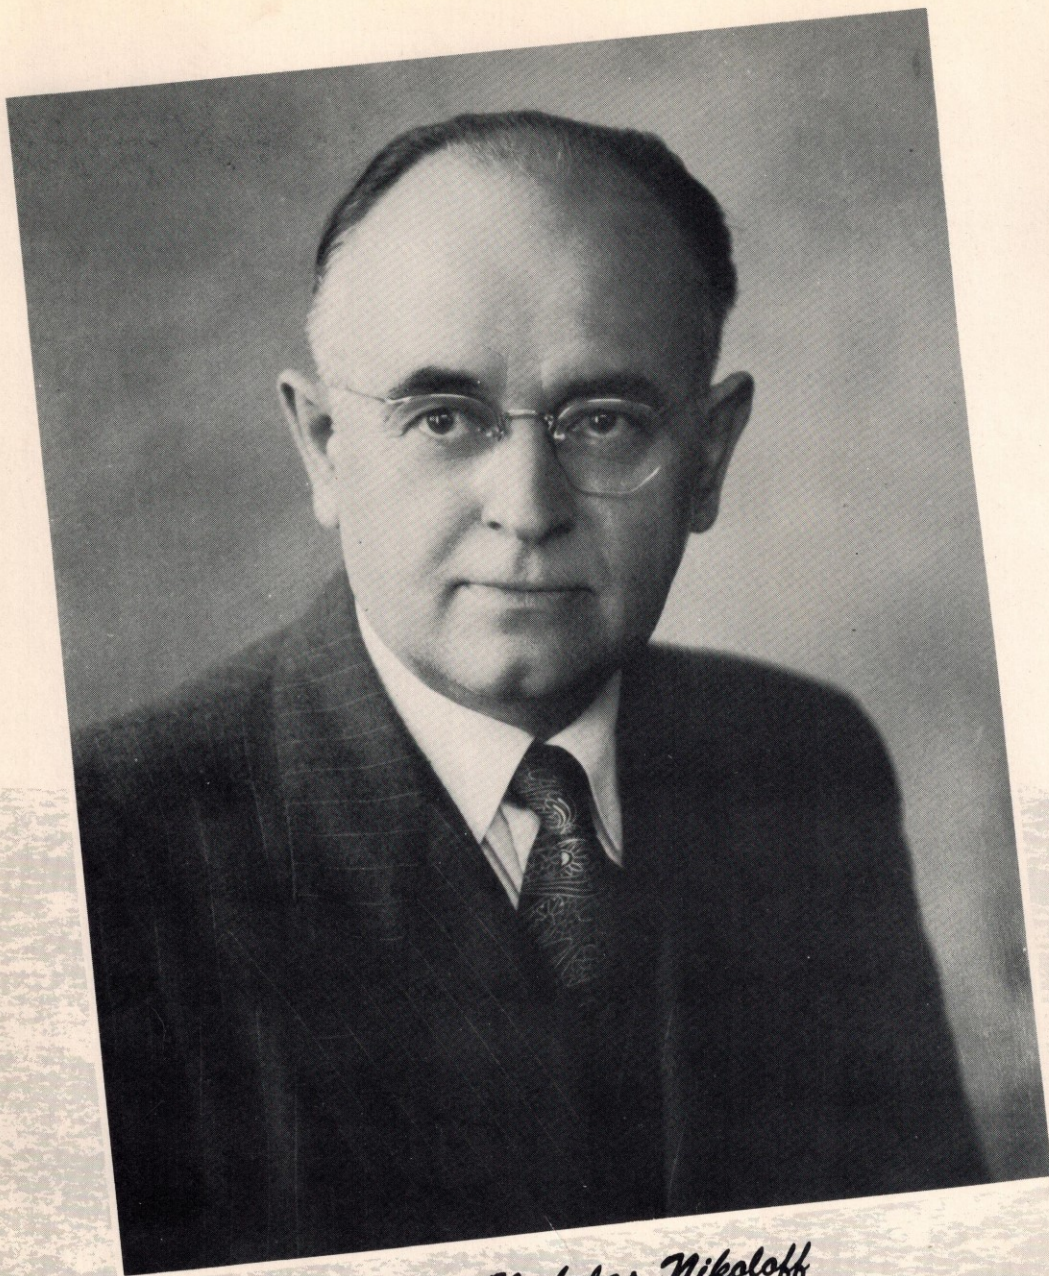

The Campus

All the beauty and loveliness of nature surrounds us. Its silent messages inspire us—whether on the rolling lawn, in the pine grove, or by the babbling brook—we find God; we commune with Him here and delight in His creation.

"Consider what I say" . . .

Rev. Nicholas Nikoloff
PRESIDENT

It is to the person who keeps on overcoming that Christ promises the following: to eat of the tree of life and the hidden manna, to escape the second death, to receive a new name, to have power over the nations, to possess the Morning Star, to be clothed in white garments, to have Christ acknowledge him as His own before the Heavenly Father and the angels, to make him a pillar in the temple of God, to write on him the name of God, the name of the city of God and the new name of the Redeemer, thus acknowledge him as a child of God, and identifying him as a citizen of God's universal and eternal kingdom and finally, to grant him to sit with Him on His throne, ruling and reigning the universe throughout eternity. (Rev. 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:5, 12 and 21)

Stand, therefore, in Christ! Through Him you can be more than mere occasional conquerors (Rom. 8:37)—you can be habitual overcomers. Because your Redeemer overcame the world (John 16:33), you can do it also.

"In conclusion, strengthen yourselves in the Lord and in the power which His supreme might imparts. Put on the complete armour of God, so as to be able to stand firm against all the stratagems of the devil. For ours is not a conflict with more flesh and blood, but with the despotisms, the empires, the forces that control and govern this dark world—the spiritual hosts of evil arrayed against us in the heavenly warfare. Therefore put on the complete armour of God, so that you may be able to stand your ground in the day of battle, and, having fought to the end, to remain victors on the field." Eph. 6:10-13 (Weymouth)

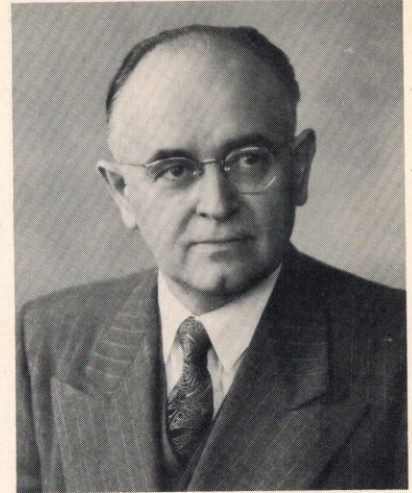

Rev. Thomas R. Brubaker
CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The church of Jesus Christ is not a weak, pacific body but a strong, aggressive, militant army which is ready to meet the foe. The graduating class of '50 goes forth at the command of our Redeemer Captain, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature . . . behold I give you power over all the power of the enemy". You have applied yourselves to study, you have yielded to discipline, you have by prayer and consecration put on the gospel armor, and now you shall indeed be more than CONQUERORS THROUGH CHRIST. Our sincere prayers and deep affection will follow you—God bless and prosper each one!

REV. NICHOLAS NIKOLOFF

Never say that it doesn't pay to take God's business to heart. Because of the unselfish way in which Brother Nikoloff has strapped the responsibilities of the school to his back, he has won the admiration, love, and respect of us students. His altruistic efforts are surely inspired by Christ's words in Matthew 10:39—"He that findeth his life shall lose it: but he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it."

"Go Ye" . . .

REV. THOMAS R. BRUBAKER

"Hats off" to Brother Brubaker. It is often repeated, "I don't know how he does it!" The whirlpool of work which constantly threatens to engulf our faculty, except for God's grace and strength has also claimed Brother Brubaker. Only as he waits before the Lord does he "mount up with wings as eagles". We would bestow a blessing upon him from God's word . . . "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit." Philemon 25.

REV. LEWIS B. GRIFFIN

As we mentioned in our dedication, Brother Griffin has a spirit akin to that of John, of the New Testament. We found him over in I John 3:18—"Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth." His love for Christ has asserted itself in his untiring efforts to attend to many of the demands of the school; thus he has become another fitting example to us young people who are preparing to step out into the ministry.

REV. RUSSEL GOODWIN

We caught a glimpse of Brother Goodwin in II Timothy 2:15: "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." After sitting in Brother Goodwin's classes, we are convinced that there is such a thing as a "perpetual student", for we have a living example before us. His combined ministry, that of both teacher and preacher, has proved to be a great source of blessing.

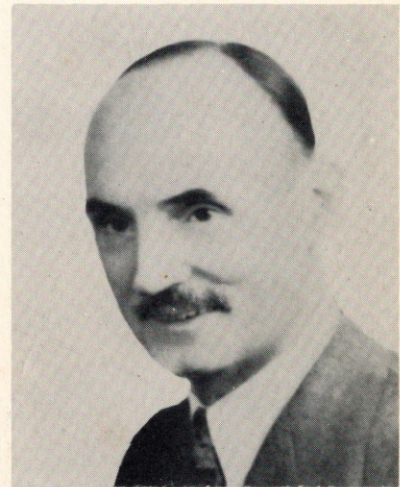

"Be instant" . . .

REV. DAVID LEIGH

Never will we read Hebrews 11:16— ("But without faith it is impossible to please God: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.")—except we remember Brother Leigh, whose assurance of obtaining the merits and rewards of grace rests in faith alone. As we listen to him, Pentecost of the early 1900's lives again, and we are spurred on in our desire for a revival in our spirits.

MR. ULRICH JELINEK

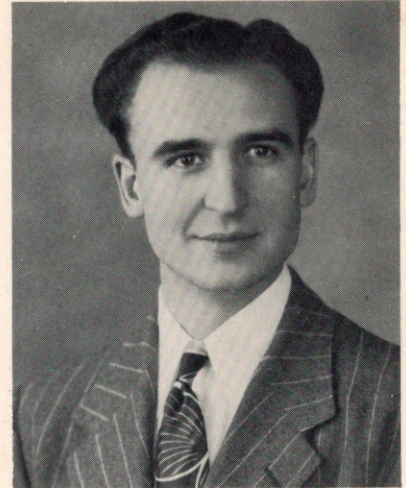

In "Science in the Bible" class, Brother Jelinek awes us students with his "prodigious quantity of erudition", but like the rest of our teachers, he hasn't let his acquisition of knowledge "go to his head". Rather, we see him attaining to the standard set forth in James 3:13: "Who is a wise man and endowed with knowledge among you? Let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom."

REV. BERNARD W. ALLEN

This is Brother Allen's first year with us, but we have gotten pretty well acquainted with him. His verse might well be I Corinthians 2:12: "Now we have received . . . the spirit . . . of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God." It is his firm belief that the Christian has a clearer concept of life than any other person. We admire Brother Allen because he combines "book-larnin'" with a deep consecration.

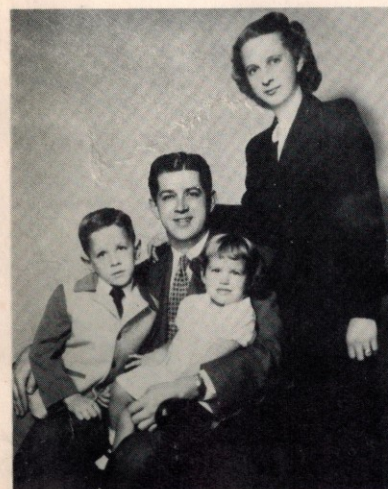

"Be Ye doers

REV. ANTHONY A. CAPRINO

From the fervency with which he teaches Chaos of Cults, we gather that Brother Caprino is a firm believer in Ephesians 6:11: "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." Time and again he admonishes us to memorize scriptures with which we may combat the "isms" of the enemy. In addition to Chaos of Cults, Brother Caprino teaches Italian.

REV. R. STANLEY BERG

We certainly feel honored to have Brother Berg as a teacher at M. B. I. because of the position he holds in Glad Tidings Tabernacle (whisper it), New York City. As a whole, we know little about Brother Berg, but we are anxious to have for an instructor one who can minister before such great throngs without trembling in his boots. Judging by his messages, he has prayed the prayer of Peter in Acts 4:29 . . . "Lord, grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness, they may speak the word . . ."

MRS. MARTHA NIKOLOFF

As Sister Nikoloff firmly presides over our classes we find that she has the gift of making the duller of subjects at least a little interesting, and the most interesting subjects, positively fascinating. The interest and concern which she shows for us students is pictured in I Thessalonians 2:8: "So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us." She has become another "Mom" to us students.

of the Word."

MISS EVA T. SISCO

Maybe Sister Sisco didn't know it, but in I Timothy 4:15, we see what she does with her time away from school. We even see her most private life. We find Paul saying, "Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all." She certainly must do so, because her "profiting" becomes apparent in her teaching, and then — we profit along with her.

MRS. AGNES GOODWIN

Sister Goodwin gives us the encouraging impression that she lives always at the exultant zenith of life, and enjoys it immensely. This same zest she applies to her spiritual life, for though Revelation 1:7 be true ("Behold, he cometh with the clouds."), she always sees "Him", and not the clouds. Her life has been and continues to be a spring of inspiration to all of us.

MRS. FREDERICA P. KNECHT

From time immortal, God has granted a ministry to music, so you have probably already guessed where we found Sister Knecht—over in Colossians 3:16—("Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.") We are grateful to Sister Knecht for her willingness to bear with us in Chorus.

MRS. MILDRED PALMER JORDAN

All of us could benefit from the example of patience that we see in Sister Jordan. At least ten—or more—times a day on Tuesdays, as she hears "Sister Jordan, I'm sorry but I didn't practice my piano this week", we believe she receives consolation in II Timothy 2:24: "And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gently unto all men, apt to teach, patient . . ." We promise to do better, Sister Jordan.

MISS IRENE E. LARSEN

In the short time that we have known her, Sister Larsen has inspired our confidence and respect. Since days gone by found her on the foreign soil of China, we know that at one time she heard Christ say, as He said in Mark 16:15, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." We girls certainly appreciate a dean so understanding as she.

MISS IOLA MACKEY, Registrar

Sister Mackey, our efficient registrar, is so susceptible to being teased that many times she has probably turned to I Corinthians 15:57: "But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." And we always find her so—pleasant, happy, ready to assist, ever the friend to all that her Master would have her be.

good fight" . . .

MISS ELIZABETH HIGGINS

The Library has become a winsome and enjoyable place since Sister Higgins, who was graduated from our midst last year, has become our full-time librarian. We hold her in high regard for the way in which she so lives for God that she has well-heeded Paul's admonition to Timothy in I Tim. 4:12 . . . "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

Presenting the Need

Saying Farewell

Setting Sail

Brother and Sister Lewis

The shrill whistle of the ship sounds on the air, the last visitor walks onto the shore, the gangplank is raised, and amid many "Bon Voyage"'s, and "God Bless You!"'s, the boat sets sail taking with it our "Mom" and "Pop" Lewis, deans of last school year, to the far land of India as missionaries to that darkened country, leaving us with the realization that perhaps we may never see them again this side of Heaven. Yet warm memories steal into our hearts and comfort us; such as, social outings, rallies, and times of spiritual revivals. Their presence, prayers, and influence are still felt by all who knew them. In our season of missionary prayers their names are held up before the Father, and the earnest petition is asked, that God will continue to bless their ministry, and use them as His reapers in that rich harvest field.

Senior Class History

Oh, to have had a place beside our Great High Priest in the heavenlies, and to have beheld open hearts of consecrated young people as they knelt before God in prayer during the summer of 1945 and the preceding months. Yes, from various parts of the country, the fragrance from incense of prayer was ascending and filling the very nostrils of God. We were desirous of being in God's will and of having His best for us. Although God has seen best to thrust many members of our original class into various fields of His great work, we are happy to represent the graduating class which is ready for His leading and at His disposal.

After these long days of anticipation were over, there came the day that was the fulfillment of a long held dream. As we reminisce, we almost wish we could start anew and relive the most cherished days of our lives.

It was registration day! One by one we arrived at the Bethany Pentecostal Church in Paterson, New Jersey, which was the location of the school during our first year. We were a class of slightly bewildered and nervous freshmen! Nevertheless, we soon came to know and love each other, becoming a class of genial and cooperative workers.

We shall never forget that first freshmen skip day, the memories of which will remain long after other thoughts have slipped from us. The night before . . . the potato bin . . . hot dogs . . . two quart bottles . . . and lastly, brotherly pranks.

During our Junior year the location of our school was changed, and this affected every phase of our school life. We can now bathe our thoughts in God's gracious creation and from time to time set our studies aside and enjoy what He has given us in nature.

In one sense, we almost regret the thoughts of concluding the hours of our school life. On the other hand, we are anxious to be made useful by the One who has called us. As we think back upon our Senior year we are reminded of the most precious times we have had together enjoying God's presence and of the fellowship we have had with each student and faculty member.

He has proven faithful in the smallest things and through Him we are made more than conquerors as we look into our future ministry for Him.

Grace Chellman

This amiable lass, who has a distinct dislike for spiders, has been an integral part of the Senior class with her position as Senior class president, and her contributions of musical talent. Her heart is wrapped up in her precious Lord and her cherished call to Hawaii.

Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.
I THESS. 5:24

Ann Coco

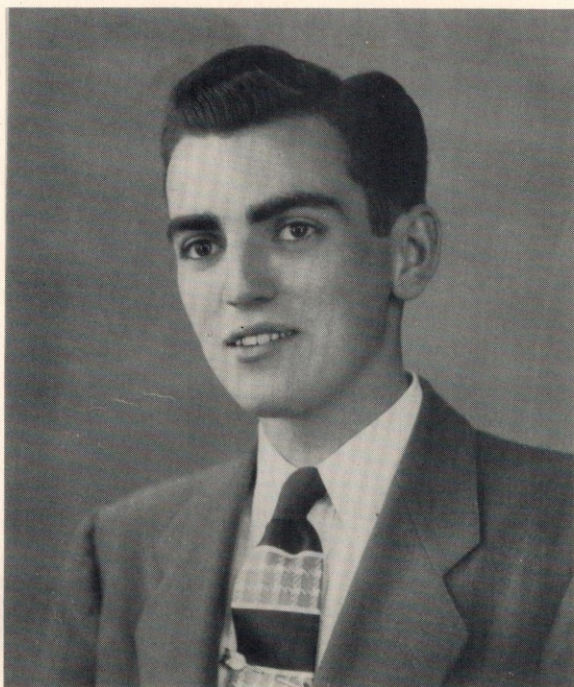

The keyboard has yielded its inspiring renditions of hymns at the touch of her hands. Her sacrificial life has revealed itself in the manner in which she has shouldered the responsibilities of others who were not able to do so. Her consecration of herself and her talent may soon find her scattering the glorious seed of the Gospel among the Chinese.

He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. PSALMS 40:2

Ernest Edwards

"Pastor Edwards" is a name that is gradually becoming familiar around the halls of M. B. I., since Ernest became the competent pastor of the Maple Meade Assembly. But while he gives his utmost in the homeland, he still hears the tom-toms and chants of fetish priests in dark Africa, sounding in his heart. That land—his goal.

He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. PSALMS 126:6

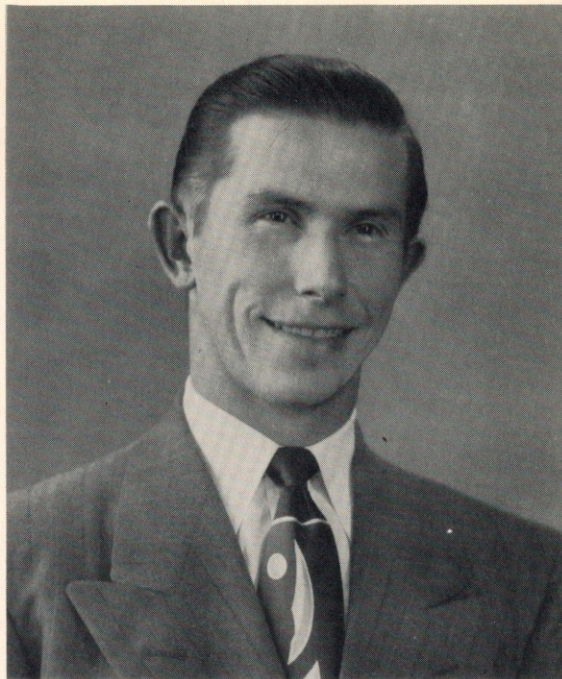

Put on the whole armor of God . . .

Pearl Erland

The "little secretary" is always on the go either working in the office, doing homework, playing her accordion for services, or gone on outstation for the Master, as she redeems the time until she has an open door to Child Evangelism work.

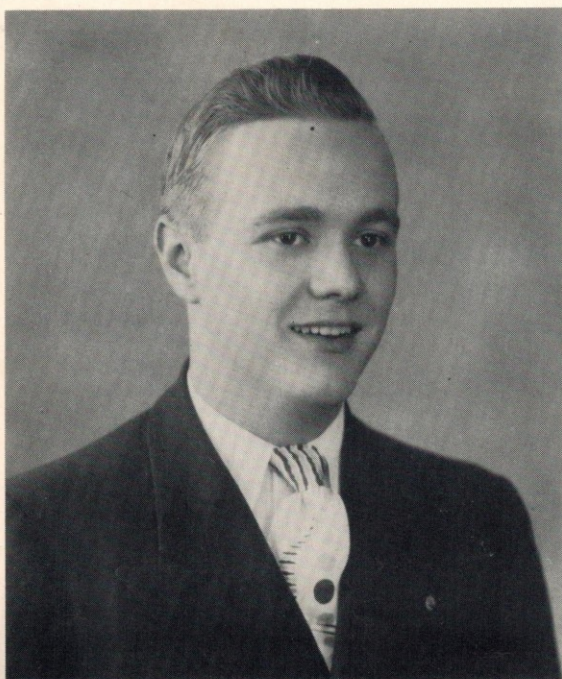

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.
PSALMS 46:10

Paul Graban

Paul is another of our former C. B. I. students who came to complete his course with the M. B. I. family this year. Paul's manner of preaching reminds us of another Paul of long ago. We have received much benefit from the exhortations which he has set forth in his messages. The Home Missions prayerband claimed him as its president at its organization, for the work on the home field holds the vital spot in his prayers.

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death. PHIL. 3:10

Edward Granholm

The versatile voice in Chorus belongs to this "Svede", whom one usually finds in "Magnolia", his car. Eddie has been active in outstation work, and is an instrumentalist virtually unlimited. Guitar, flute, piccolo, saxophone—all are used anytime that they may bring glory to Jesus.

In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths. PROV. 3:6

Breastplate of Righteousness . . .

Marjorie Green

In spite of her apparent quietness, and smallness of stature, Marjorie has taken a very active part in the affairs of M. B. I., as soloist, member of a girls' trio, secretary to divers organizations and committees, and a faithful outstation worker. Her wit has enlivened many a dinner table.

He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. PSALMS 126:6

Joseph Leuzze

Here is another of these talented Seniors, who has been blessed with a variety of musical abilities. We won't soon forget Joe as "D#" of the boys' trio, as they toured the East last summer—on faith-singing for the glory of God.

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust and he shall bring it to pass. PSALMS 37:5

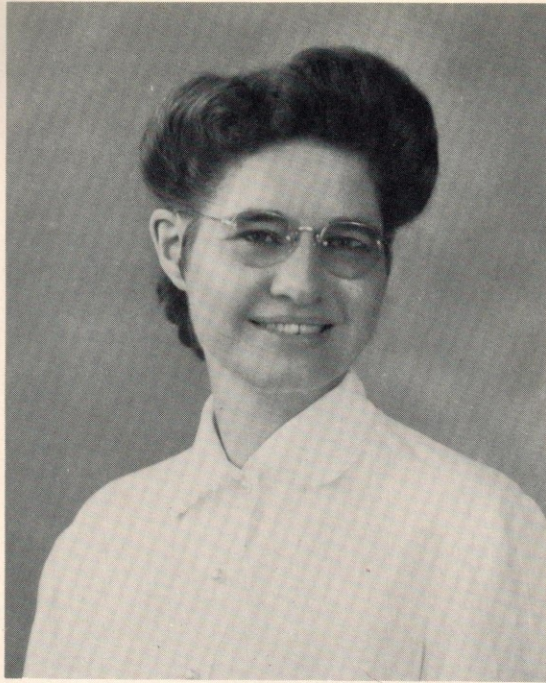

Genevieve Phillips

Quietness, serenity, and understanding characterize Sister Phillips, who has completed three years' work in two years with us. Some day in the future we may find her on India's coral strands in her renewed profession as a teacher, with her beloved Bible as her text-book.

But my God will supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. PHIL. 4:19

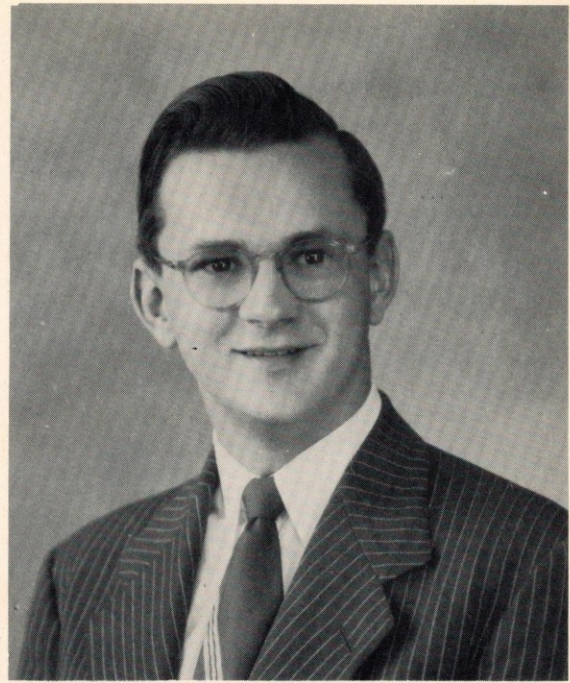

Helmet of Salvation . . .

Mildred Porter

Sister Porter has been with us only one year—her two previous years having been spent at C. B. I. She holds an unusual position here at school: that of half-student, half-teacher. She has devoted much time to the menial tasks that must be done, thus showing the true spirit of Christ.

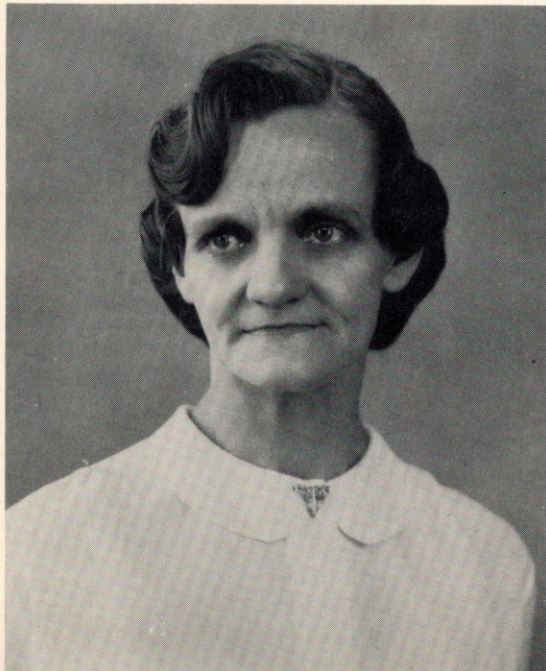

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot. PSALM 16:5

Daniel Raught

"Versatile" is the word that best describes Danny, combination preacher, editor, musician, and all-around leader. (The "Rock" Staff certainly has appreciated his patience with us.) His capabilities have gained for him a high place in his class. We prophesy that he will go far in God's work as a minister of the Gospel.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. PHIL. 3:14

Mrs. Flora Voorhees

Sister Voorhees is one of those "behind-the-scene" people who do so much towards making things a little better or easier. She has proven to be a willing and conscientious worker both in her studies and in work for the school. She is looking forward to returning to Panama, her childhood home, to minister the Gospel, as the Lord leads.

I beseech ye therefore, brethern, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. ROMANS 12:1

Valley Cottage Extension Class

One may inquire, "Why the hurried steps of these happy folk every Wednesday night to the Elim Tabernacle in Valley Cottage? What may the incentive be?"

To this inquiry we reply that these are the incentives. The complete extension courses offered by two of the M. B. I. faculty.

Rev. L. B. Griffin teaches well, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, the Book of Revelation. In this class we learn of the reward to those who are faithful to Christ and of the judgment to those who reject Christ.

Miss E. Teresa Sisco depicts, as she teaches Biblical Geography and History, the importance of locations and periods of time and the spiritual applications of the great historical events given in the Word of God.

A third period thoroughly enjoyed by the students is the devotional period when testimonies are given, prayer is offered and God's blessings are witnessed by each one. Because of the Spiritual feast we enjoy each Wednesday evening our scripture theme may well be, "He brought me to the banqueting house, and His banner over me was love." Song of Solomon 2:4

"Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."
Psalm 119:18. This has been the heart cry of the students at the New York evening extension classes of Metropolitan Bible Institute. The evenings spent here have been enlightening, instructive and profitable, for God's Word is what one needs to be equipped with in these last days. The subjects we have taken this year are: the Gospel of Matthew where Christ's birth, life and ministry has been portrayed as prophesied in the Old Testament. In Bible Doctrine II, we have not only been strengthened but enlightened in relation to Christ's redemptive work. History on Pentecost also has been very interesting and has taken us to various lands where the Pentecostal blessings were first outpoured. We discovered that such revivals came through a hunger for God and much prayer. These studies have been of great value and are having a telling effect upon us as parents, teachers and Christian workers and has equipped us in whatever part of His vineyard the Lord chooses to place us.

THE TASK SUPREME

Go forth, go forth ambassadors.
Your worthy Lord make known!
You represent a lofty cause—
God's grace at Calvary shown.
Bright angels fain would sweep through time
And do your work—'tis so sublime
Go forth, go forth ye workers—
Ye heralds of the Lord!
And spread through all creation
God's mighty saving Word.
With lavish hand cast forth the seed,
The time is short, and great the need!

"I know thy works: behold I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou has a little strength, and hast kept my word and hast not denied my name." Rev. 3:8

Motto: "With Christ Through An Open Door."

In many places the door is shut to the work of Christ. However, Africa is one of the few countries still open to receive missionaries of the Gospel.

Many times we say it is a privilege to serve the Lord. But along with that privilege comes a great responsibility to go into "all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

Africa, the Dark Continent, has not only dark skinned peoples, but those whose very lives are in gross darkness. These people are bound by sin and superstitions, and the chains of Satanic powers envelope them. If we would listen we could hear the chants of the Fetish Priests trying to appease the gods and atone for the sins of the heathen.

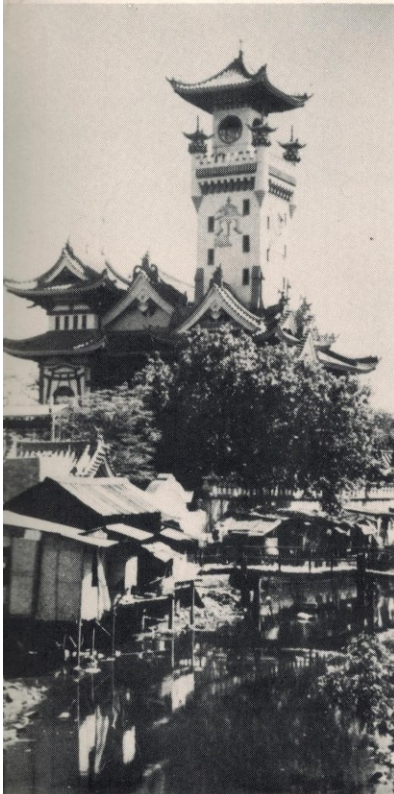

Only the Gospel of Jesus Christ entering the open door can bring salvation and set the prisoners free, putting within their lives absolute peace.

The responsibility is ours; the door is open. Shall we enter in with Christ, and help those who sit in darkness to receive the light?

China

China is beyond our reach, save through a few missionaries whom God has led to remain at their stations. Communism has drawn a Bamboo Curtain around the five hundred million souls there. China is isolated.

But what about the people of China? Now that Communist armies have taken over the government, what is the future of Christianity in China? Having struggled through twelve long years of war, the Chinese have begun to appreciate spiritual values. Weary hearts yearn for comfort; sin-sick souls cry out for forgiveness. An earnest preacher will find eager listeners when he proclaims Christ. In one year, in a gospel hall seating only seventy people, more than a thousand penitents found salvation.

For the present, the national Christians must carry on without outside help, with little or no communication with other Christians. The Communists have isolated China from human aid and fellowship. But no power of Satan can isolate China from God. Not even the Communists can bar Christ from His people. In Isaiah 52:15 we read, "So shall he sprinkle many nations." He has sprinkled China. Missionaries are forbidden entrance, but even the Prince of the Power of the Air cannot proclaim an ordinance against the blood: it was shed from the Cross of Calvary nineteen hundred years ago and its power is effectual today, in passing every barrier the Enemy may or can erect.

What part can we have in the present and the future of China? As members of the Body of Christ, as a part of the Church, what is our place? First of all, we can pray. Prayer is our right, our privilege and our responsibility. While here in Bible School, in training, we cannot go to China, even were the door open. Not many of us can give, and none of us much. But we can all pray. We must pray that the hunger in the hearts of the Chinese may increase until nationwide repentance makes it possible for God to lift the awful judgment now being inflicted upon the land. We must pray the Lord of the Harvest that He will thrust forth national laborers into the whitened harvest field of China. We must remember the few missionaries yet on that field, and we must pray for courage that will not fail when some discouraging report is heard.

The child of God who does not pray hinders the plan of God; shall we, whom He has called, tie our Father's hands by so failing?

"Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost part of the earth for thy possession," is the promise of God. In the name of Christ, and for His glory, we claim this promise in behalf of China.

Home Missions

"I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name."—REV.: 3:8

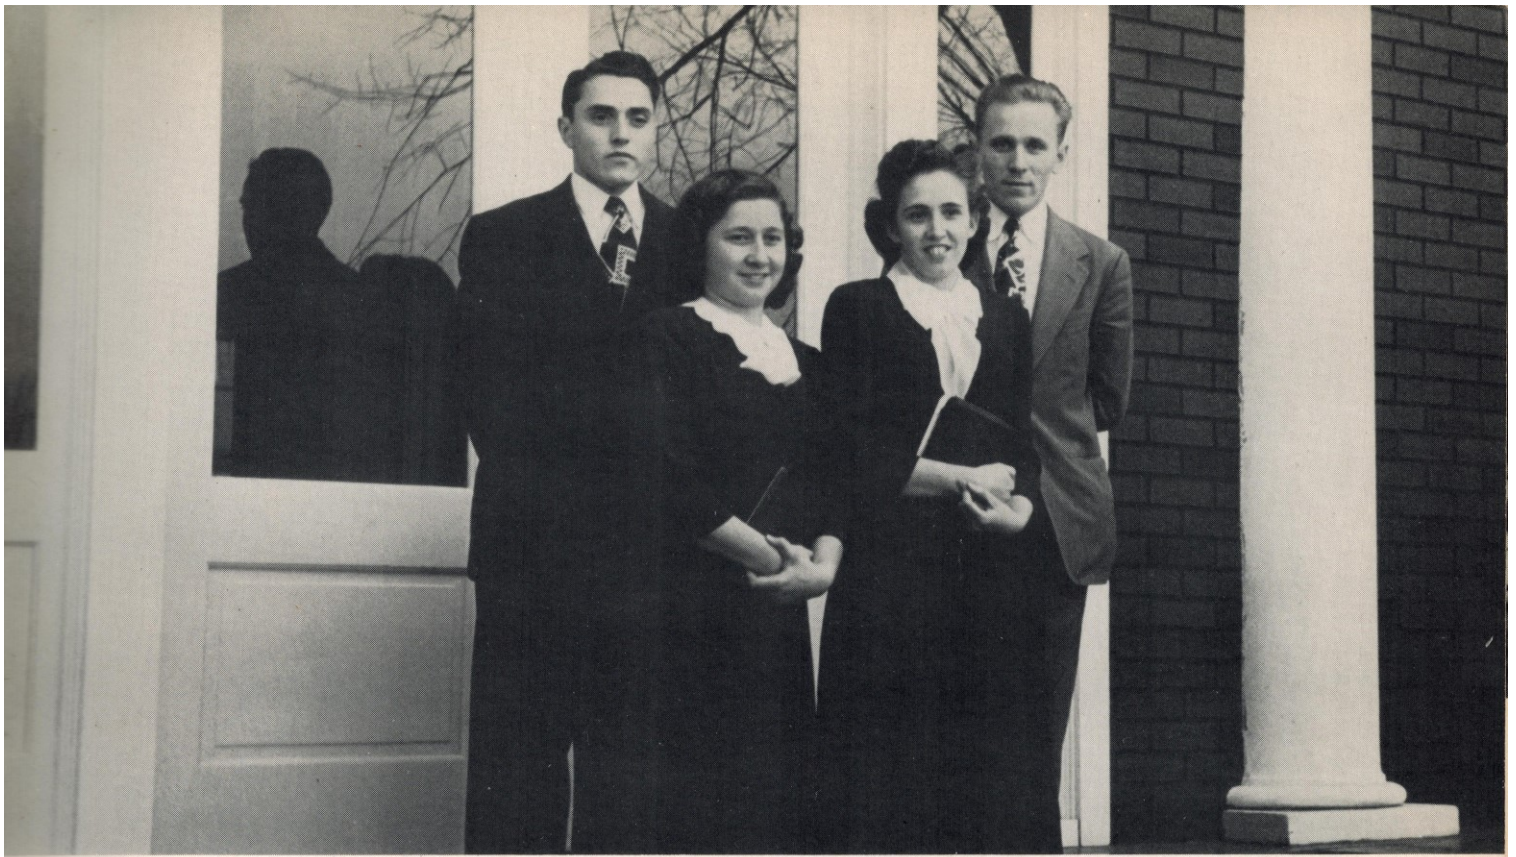

Our mission field is Christian America. Our hearts are burdened because we feel that the spirit of America is foreign to the spirit of the "Kingdom of God," of which we have become citizens. In John 3:6,7 we read, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the spirit is spirit, Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

America, where the gospel can be heard at a turn of the radio dial and where churches are plenteous, is yet a stranger to our Christ of Calvary. America is heathen in that the people do not possess a personal experience with the Son of God which taketh away the sins of the world. What a heart rending challenge is ours to tell our fellow countrymen that they must be born again and possess a personal experience with Christ in order to inherit eternal life in heaven.

At this writing America is at its peak of evangelization with every possible avenue being utilized in the spreading of the gospel. Our country is an open door before us. We have the freedom to preach, to pray, to plead with men and women, boys and girls to come to Christ and accept Him as their personal Savior, while overseas, doors are closing, preaching of the gospel is being forbidden and true christians are being persecuted because of their stand for Christ.

Therefore, as consecrated young people, called of the Lord, and in view of His soon return, we have an impelling commission to be faithful witnesses, reaching the lost and dying of our home land and praying them into the fold of Christ.

Europe

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light." Rom. 13:12. Motto: Europe for Christ.

Let those of us in America who are struggling daily for self-glory and seeking a prominent position in life stop for a few moments to catch a glimpse of the needy continent of Europe.

Today it is a picture of mobs of people groping about in the darkness of sin, looking for something and they know not what. They are dressed in rags; they are hungry; many of them are homeless. As a result of such tragic conditions, Communism has taken control and has used every means at its disposal to keep the Gospel from the people and to turn believers against the Lord Jesus Christ. Christians are promised wealth and prosperity if they submit to the rule of the government and renounce Christ. For those who refuse, there is imprisonment and persecution. It is only with the help and grace of God that the true believers have remained firm in their convictions, though for many their faithfulness has meant even death.

Where fear is instilled in the hearts of the people, there darkness and superstition prevail as in dark Africa and China. Although Europe is a mission field with great possibilities, very few missionaries are laboring there. Due to military restrictions, we are unable to place missionaries from the United States in some of the countries. However, beginning in 1950, we are making definite plans to put down our stakes in several of the European nations. There is a great need for Sunday School and young people's workers.

Day after day, requests are received, pleading for the prayers of Christians in America. European workers are depending upon this backing; and though we may not be able to go, we can pray.

Truly "The night is far spent and the day is at hand." What we do must be done quickly. Give! Pray! Go!

Japan and the Isles of the Sea

Romans 10:13-15: "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call upon him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how then shall they preach unless they be sent?"

Japan's people are toiling and struggling with life to make a living and find peace for their souls. They have had a glimpse of Christianity in the nineteenth century.

Joseph Neesima, one of their own boys to bring the light to Japan, in his quest for God, cried out as he read of the creation, "Oh, if you have eyes look upon me; if you have ears listen to me!"

Japan's doors have been thrown wide open to Christianity since World War II.

We are ever reminded that the Gospel is a living seed of irresistible power.

Dare we neglect to plant this seed and take this light? Will we let this opportunity slip by and let religious cults keep them in darkness and daunt their souls? Who, then, will go?

Truly the harvest is great and the laborers few in this needy field.

The Isles of the Sea, including the Philippines, the West Indies, the Fiji and Hawaiian Islands, also plead today for the light of the Gospel. Among the heathen religions prevalent there are the Hindu, Buddhist, Mohammedan and Confucian ideas. The witchcraft, idolatry, devil-worship and many other apparent evils are overwhelming.

The island of Hawaii alone stands, for the most part, bound by Satan's chains of darkness. Only the precious blood of Jesus will remedy this situation and snap these fetters of sin. The enemy is mighty, that is certain, but our God is ALMIGHTY.

Christ gave His all. Shall we not do our part by giving, by daily interceding for lost souls dying without the Saviour, or by consecrating our lives in service to Him, not counting the cost?

Scripture: "Hear the Word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the Isles afar off."—Jeremiah 31:10

Latin America

Just south of the American border lie more than twenty countries which are still in the darkness of superstition and unbelief. These are countries which need very much to hear the glad tidings of a full and free salvation. The field of Latin America is vast, for we include South America, Mexico, Central America and the West Indies. This great mission field calls for many a stout heart that is willing to lean on the Saviour's arm and receive for an inheritance the lost Spanish people.

There is a Good Neighbor Policy existing between the United States and Latin America, which has politically linked those nations in a close bond of friendship. But bonds of man are not sufficient to give unto man security that satisfies the soul. What South America needs is security that comes not from the pen and inkwell of man, but an eternal peace pact written in hearts by the precious blood of Jesus, our Lord.

Two young missionaries were traveling down a road in Mexico. There, just a short distance ahead, a little boy stood waving his hand. The men stopped the car and asked the boy what he wanted, and the little fellow looked up and said, "Tengo hambre" (I am hungry). This small boy has expressed the great need of Latin America. There, as in the days of Joseph, the famine is sore in the land, but it is a spiritual famine, hunger for the Word of God.

Do you realize that Havana, Cuba, is only a forty-five minute ride by plane from Miami, Florida? Here the Word is being preached and thousands have already heeded the blessed call of Christ. Souls have been saved, and there are also ringing testimonies of divine healing.

An education can easily be obtained in the cities of Latin America, but it takes more than books and worldly knowledge to fill a hungry heart in search of the truth. Furthermore, the great masses of the people are outside the cities, and there are still many unreached tribes of Indians. Literacy throughout the world is rapidly increasing, and there is a great need of supplying the hungry masses with Christian literature. Printing presses are needed. Radio broadcasts must be financed. Bible Schools are now being established in many places to prepare national workers to proclaim the blessed gospel of Christ in its purity, for this alone can bring salvation and deliver souls from the bondage of sin and eternal death.

The challenge is to us, now. The night cometh swiftly. We have the message, we have been given the Great Commission, we have been endued with the power of the Holy Spirit. Let us not fail our blessed Lord and Master!

"And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal." John 4:36

India

Scripture: "The entrance of thy words giveth light." Psalms 119:130.

Motto: Christ, the Light.

Great changes are taking place in India today, even in the course of a few months. Since August 15, 1947, British India has ceased to exist and in her place two new nations have been born—the Dominion of India and Pakistan. They have a combined population of four hundred million souls.

For years India has been considered one of the hardest fields for two reasons. One is that her pantheistic philosophy excludes true religion. Another reason is that India has no place in her social system for the man who accepts Christ. He must literally forsake all—his possessions, his inheritance and many times his wife and children, and become an outcast. Thousands of Hindus have done this. Are we willing to do as much?

India needs Christ today, not just another religion. Education alone is not enough. The education India has received in our Christian colleges has not turned her to Christ. It is only as He is reflected in the lives of Christians or revealed by the Holy Spirit to the people of India that they are drawn to Him. Only a Gospel of love can touch their hearts and transform their lives. Only He can guide them in this time of national crisis. We must take Christ and His Spirit to India!

The present appears to be our time of golden opportunity. Under her new constitution we are looking forward to a period of reaping. How long this will continue no one can tell. Doors are fast closing in other fields. Let us not fail India today!

Last year Brother and Sister Lewis were with us at M. B. I. Today they are nearing the shores of India, and Sister Rich is planning to return in the near future. Let us hold them up in prayer, and also our former fellow-student, Brother Sharma. May each of us be willing to follow as the Lord may lead us.

"Soon the time for reaping will be over,
Soon we'll gather for the harvest home.
May the Lord of harvest smile upon us,
May we hear His blessed, 'Child, well done!'"

From the swelling oratorios of robed choirs in a great, impressive cathedral, to the simple hymn of praise being poured forth from a consecrated heart, there comes a delight, a charm, a quickening and renewing of one's spirit. Surely music had its origin in Heaven and was designed for the purpose of praising the God and Father of all mankind. Oh to have heard the anthem when the morning stars sang together in creation's dawn!

Music is an expression of the soul's experiences. There is music to express gladness and render praise unto the Lord; there are songs signifying deep longing after the things of God; there are soul-stirring hymns that open the windows of heaven and shower down blessings. The music that produces the greatest blessing is that which has been consecrated to God. When has many a sinner ever been so broken as after hearing humble, consecrated lips form the notes of the favorite old hymn, such as "The Old Rugged Cross" or "What a Friend We Have in Jesus"! Such is the ministry of music.

Music forms an integral part of M. B. I. God has blessed us with a favorable portion of talent. We are grateful for this added means by which we may glorify Him Who has set a song of redemption ringing in our hearts. Soloists, instrumentalists, chorus, orchestra, trios, quartets . . . all are avenues of opportunity to witness for Him and to worship Him.

Well might it be said of God's people that ". . . they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, 'Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints'."

Outstations

The mountain-tops have been glorious; the Holy Spirit has fallen; hearts and lives have been purged and cleansed; the Power of the Lord has wrought a vast change in our vision for souls and our love for God; and our desire to launch into the Lord's work has been quickened.

We students are grateful for these ever-new and fresh experiences in Christ, but we also have come to the realization that we must either share these blessings with other hungry souls, or our experiences will become stale and lose their thrill and power. Also, there are those whose spiritual eyes must be opened to their need for more of the need of Christ and of the Way. Therefore, we have consecrated ourselves to Him, to move at His command to "Go ye . . . and teach . . ." Thus have developed our outstation works at surrounding churches and missions. The common ministries are those of teaching, preaching, song-leading, personal evangelism, and visitation work. God has greatly used the students and multiplied our blessings to us because of our willingness to spend ourselves in His service. Some of the regular outstation works are located at Hillburn, N. Y., North Bergen, N. J., West Milford, N. J., and the Episcopal Church and the Blind Players' Club, both at Suffern, N. Y.

Special Chapel Speakers

Pentecost is famed for the power with which it preaches, and its spiritual depth in God. Even if I were not Pentecostal I would be inclined to agree with public opinion. The chapel speakers whom we have been privileged to hear have, through their messages, proven themselves worthy of their position back of the sacred desk.

I have said we are privileged to hear because, as students standing at the threshold of the ministry, we are to consider ourselves blessed that God has seen fit to send to us men and women who have already taken the step of faith, and who have learned invaluable lessons which they have readily transmitted to us, and which we have gratefully received. Through their experiences we have found that the actual process of being a minister is far different from, and far surpasses, what we students can even imagine, except as we come in contact with it on outstation work.

They all faithfully maintain that we have the highest calling in the world, but that it is also the most difficult and trying task to be done, when it is performed conscientiously. All other professions deal with the temporal; ours, with the eternal. So we express our thanks and appreciation to God, and to these speakers, because their practical, important ministry serves as a guide for us in future work for Christ's Kingdom.

Rock Staff

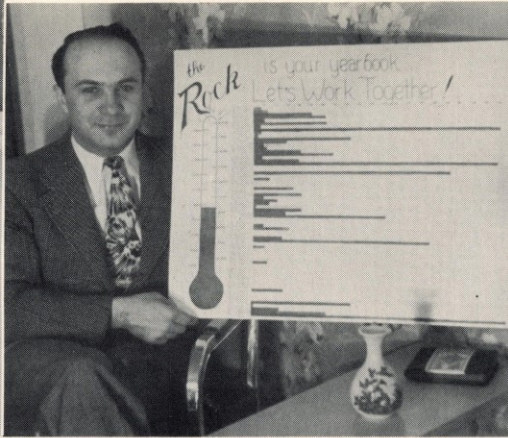

On the average of once a week the editor endeavors to gather the staff together for the purpose of planning for the publication of the yearbook. Many long hours of work, collectively and individually, go into the process of formulating a yearbook. Also much praying is done that "The Rock" might accomplish its purpose; that is, to glorify God by portraying school life at Metropolitan Bible Institute.

Student Council

The Student Council is the representative elective body of Metropolitan Bible Institute and is chosen by the students, upon the approval of the faculty. It is made up of a representative member of each class and a faculty adviser.

|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| President | ERNEST EDWARDS, Senior |
| Vice President | ARTHUR ANDERSON, Junior |
| Secretary | PEARL ERLAND, Senior |
| Treasurer | KENNETH LUFF, Freshman |
| Council Adviser | BRO. BERNARD ALLEN |

The main function of this council is to plan and direct the spiritual and secular activities of the student body. Various problems are carefully considered and given prayerful attention with the welfare of the student and school in mind. Wise counsel and guidance is always willingly given by the faculty adviser.

Once a week finds the student council in session arranging speakers and leaders for the chapel and Friday night C. A. services and outstation work. Various committees are appointed by the council such as social, street meeting and music.

The members of this organization deeply appreciate the cooperation of the student and faculty alike in their various functions.

Social Committee

The Social Committee is the locomotive of the train of social activities that marks times of pleasurable Christian fellowship with students and guests.

The bulk of our entertainments consists of birthday parties called "socials", which are usually held once a month to honor those who have a birthday in that month. The first half is devoted to a time of worship to the One Who, by the joy and happiness He brings at His coming, has made it possible for us to enjoy Abundant Life.

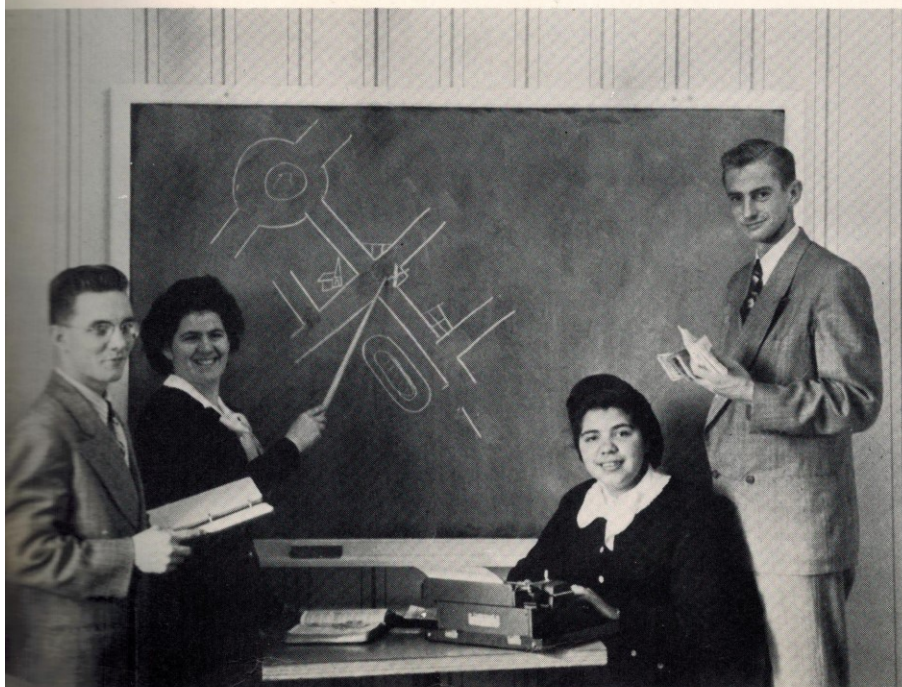

After a transitional interlude, the second half is consumed in games and harmless pranks on "birthday-ites". It ends with refreshments, the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ always being held high, and His presence honored throughout the entire occasion.

The Social Committee is elected newly every year, and deserves a "Hats off!" for their efforts. As we enjoy these happy events, we would not forget or overlook the labor involved in preparing for them: piles of dirty dishes, tired dishwashers, and weary steps heard on the stairs long after Lights-Out. But efforts are well-repaid . . . the Social was a success!

Chairman Joseph Leuzze, Martha Zaplishny, Virginia Todd, Marge Truesdell, Charles Bower, Morris Cerullo.

Street Meeting Committee

Joseph Brown, Rose Macri, Amiee Garcia, Charles Bower.

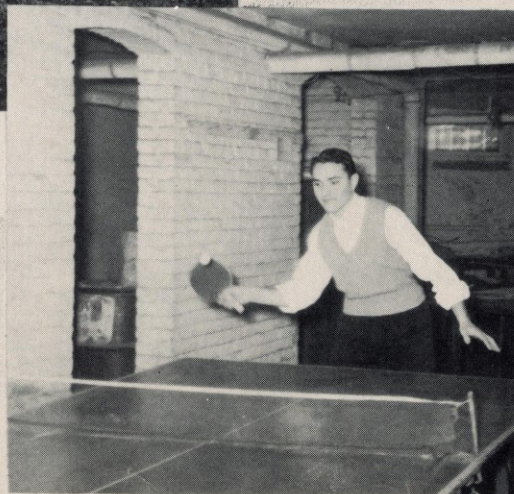

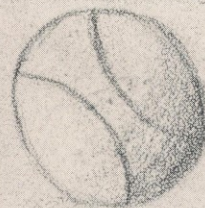

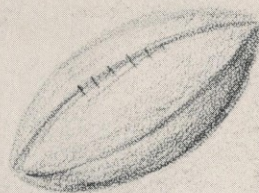

The functions of this committee are to select and secure appropriate tracts, choose leaders and to arrange street meetings under the guidance of Brother Allen, as faculty adviser.

The Lord has blessed the efforts of the street meetings as the Word of God has gone forth both in testimony and song. Hundreds of tracts were distributed by students who cooperated whole-heartedly in this work with a desire to lead souls to Christ. At times there have been three street meetings in the same evening in surrounding localities.

The hearts of the members of the committee have been blessed and have received a greater vision for the need for reaching the "way-faring man" with the Gospel, and as they have seen people respond to the Word with many receiving help and encouragement.

We are standing on this promise: "So shall My Word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the things whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11
